Additional comments

13. Any debt pledging the "faith and credit" of the State should require voter's approval. To require all state or local short term obligations which do not bind taxpayer faith and credit sounds too cumbersome to me.
19. I would agree only if Federal law were changed to actually allow the benefit to go to the survivors and not the IRS.
23. Unclear. If by "targeted' is meant "selectively" within the same category of business, I agree.
24. Elections imply an informed voter. Judicial election rules discourage the ability to contrast the candidates.
25. I would agree with a tax exempt contribution, not a tax credit.
36. Unless Obamacare is repealed or declared unconstitutional, NC would defy Federal law to not establish the insurance exchanges.
