They should have ID.

VOTERS SHOW ID: Str Fav COUNTY: Catawba GENDER: Men AGE: 55-64 PARTY REG: Ind/Oth IDEOLOGY: Moderate EDUCATION: 2 Yr Coll RACE: White
Definitely the photo ID is a good idea and we need a plan to make sure that people don't vote several times. If they own a home in two states, they can easily register in both places and vote twice. That needs to stop.

VOTERS SHOW ID: Str Fav COUNTY: Buncombe GENDER: Women AGE: 55-64 PARTY REG: Ind/Oth IDEOLOGY: Smwt Cons EDUCATION: 2 Yr Coll RACE: White
I think instead of paper ballots there should be machines.

VOTERS SHOW ID: Str Fav COUNTY: Nash GENDER: Men AGE: 25-34 PARTY REG: GOP IDEOLOGY: Smwt Cons EDUCATION: 2 Yr Coll RACE: White
When I moved here from New York, I remember New York had these little voting booths with levers, and you pulled the lever and that would mark your ballot. You never saw your ballot. It was kept in the voting booth and marked when you pulled the lever. But down here, you just mark your ballot with a pen they give you. Then you put your marked ballot in a bin with all the other marked ballots. I would prefer another style of voting other than a pen and ink ballot, possibly a touch screen computer or something. With a pen and ink ballot, I think it would be very easy to falsify a ballot. That pen and ink ballot could easily be destroyed and a phony one substituted, and that is how an election could be cooked or fixed.

VOTERS SHOW ID: Str Fav COUNTY: Davie GENDER: Men AGE: 65+ PARTY REG: GOP IDEOLOGY: DK/Ref EDUCATION: 2 Yr Coll RACE: White
Have a photo ID and make the election polls run a poll that is honest and fair to all people. Count votes right.

I honestly think the voter ID would do that. Probably if they go through the rolls and eliminate the people who have died and keep the rolls up to date.

VOTERS SHOW ID: Str Fav COUNTY: Transylvania GENDER: Men AGE: 65+ PARTY REG: GOP IDEOLOGY: Moderate EDUCATION: 2 Yr Coll RACE: White
Having present a legal photo ID would be a tremendous help. Raised a long time ago knowing that political party's would give moonshine as a bribe to get their place, and that should be implicated and illegal. Elderly people have trouble getting to the voting poles, someone should be helping them to the vote. If you give a ride to the elderly to vote don't tell them who to vote for.

VOTERS SHOW ID: Str Fav COUNTY: Mecklenburg GENDER: Men AGE: 65+ PARTY REG: GOP IDEOLOGY: Smwt Cons EDUCATION: Post-Grad RACE: White

I would suggest that early voting really be looked at. I am very opposed to early voting. I see a problem that people make up their minds too quickly before the facts are in. If there is ever going to be any fraud, I think that is where it has the potential to start. With a bunch of completed ballots just sitting around waiting to be counted, it would be very easy to make up some new fixed ballots and destroy the real ones and substitute the phony ones. I just don't think there is any security once these early ballots are cast. They just sit around waiting to be tallied, so that should definitely be looked at to see where the process could be improved if the state insists on allowing early voting. It's just too fishy for me.

I like having machines available to vote, but where I vote we have to have a pencil in ballot to not make a mistake. I think all voting places should have pencil ballots available just in case. Well, I don't like having the machines, if you push the button and it ends up not being the button you pushed you have a problem, and the pencil in ballots just scan your card as you have voted, I think it is far more accurate. And if the machines are not working you can just use the pencil ballot.

I think probably that one thing about having to have a valid ID. It doesn't seem to be a problem where I am. Except for the intimidation factor at the poles. Republicans try to weed people out, especially in Florida. They are trying to keep people like Hispanics from voting. I feel that they are hard working people and if they become citizens they should have the right to vote. For instance, when I went to vote for President Barack Obama, I went to the pole three separate times because I took elderly family members to vote. There was someone from the Republican party sitting within five hundred feet of the voting place saying, you are here again, and making derogatory comments. I asked the polling manager if they can do that and she said yes as long as they are five hundred feet away.
