Many law enforcement agencies in North Carolina use funds to buy body cameras for law enforcement personnel. The North Carolina Legislature is currently crafting legislation to determine who can see and access the footage recorded. In your opinion, who should be able to view law enforcement body camera recordings?

#CivitasPoll