In fall 2017, a requirement of the 2016 state budget requiring smaller class sizes takes effect in North Carolina Public Schools. Proponents say the new law will lead to smaller classes and better instruction. Critics say it will force districts to hire more teachers and cutback on non-classroom staff. Some legislators are working to change the law. With that in mind, do you support or oppose the class size law?

#CivitasPoll

In your opinion which is a higher priority for schools:

#CivitasPoll